Great Oratorio Returns

By BERT BINNY

Haydn's oratorio "The Creation," often performed in Victoria but not heard here for 15 years, is to be presented in Metropolitan United Church at 8.15 p.m. Wednesday as part of the church's centennial celebrations.

It was first presented in this church in April of 1902 when Gideon Hicks conducted a choir of 150 voices, Jesse Longfield was the organist, and the soloists were Miss G. H. Bradley of Tacoma and A. T. Goward and Herbert Taylor, both of Victoria. It was repeated in 1903 in response to widespread requests.

The combined choirs of Metropolitan and Centennial Churches again sang "The Creation" in 1932, 1936 and 1943. On these occasions, the director was Frank Tupman with such well-known soloists as Dudley Wickett, Thelma and Harry Johns.

Now, in 1959, "The Creation" will be performed by an augmented choir of Metropolitan Church. Soloists are to be soprano Kay Morrison, tenor Bruce Holman and baritone Kenneth Smith. All are from Vancouver and all three have an imposing list of notable appearances to their credit.

Conductor will be Beverly Fyffe, also of Vancouver. Mr. Fyffe is musical director of the Greater Vancouver Operatic Society and the university performance by the Musical Society, choral director for Theatre Under the Stars and associate director of the Vancouver Bach Choir.

Eric Boothroyd, organist and choirmaster at Metropolitan United Church, will be at the organ, with Grace Timp at the piano.

Goat Kids In Finale

LEESBURG, Fla. (UPI)—The goat appearing in the local production of "Teahouse of the August Moon" turned in a fine performance, but was unable to take her curtain call.

She had just given birth to two kids backstage.

From 'Hamlet' to 'The Fish' In Schools Drama Festival

The 19th Greater Victoria schools drama festival opens tomorrow with 29 plays entered.

Adjudicator is Miss Anne Mossman of Yellow Point, a Fellow of Trinity College in London in both speech and drama. She has taught these subjects for 25 years and is a special lecturer in speech at UBC.

The festival runs afternoons and evenings from Monday through Friday, performances starting at 2 and 8 p.m.

The honor performance and presentation of awards takes place Saturday at 8 p.m. The locale is changed this year from Victoria High School to Oak Bay Junior High School.

Here is the full program:

Monday afternoon at Glanford School—"The Day Is Bright" (Glanford) and "The Hole in the Sock" (Brentwood).

Monday evening at S. J. Willis Junior High — "The Mystery of the Ming Tree" (S. J. Willis), Scenes from "Hamlet" (St. Margaret's) and "Smoke In The Valley" (Mt. Newton).

Tuesday afternoon at Colquitz Junior High School — "The Farce of the Devil's Bridge" (Mt. Newton), "The Emperor's Nightingale" (Colquitz) and "Romantic Conspiracy" (Mt. Newton).

Tuesday evening at Oak Bay Junior High School — "After the Church Supper" (St. Margaret's), "The Fish" (Oak Bay High) and "Thank You, Doctor" (Mt. Douglas High).

Wednesday afternoon at S. J. Willis Junior High School—"The Romance of the Willow Pattern" (Central), "The Farce of the Worthy Master, Pierre Patelin" (Royal Oak) and "Sunday Costs Five Pesos" (Central).

Wednesday evening at Mount View High School—"Waltz Time" (Mount View), "A Cup of Tea" (Oak Bay High) and "The Crimson Coconut" (Mount View).

Thursday afternoon at Oak Bay Junior High School—"Paddly Pools" (Oak Bay Junior), "A Story of Ville Marie" (Esquimalt Junior) and "The Moving Finger" (Glenlyon).

Thursday evening at Belmont High School—"The Birthday of the Infanta" (Belmont Junior High), "Stew for Simon" (Victoria High) and "The Ass and the Philosophers" (Belmont Senior).

Friday afternoon at Oaklands School — "The Teddy Bear Cave" (James Bay), "Beauty and the Beast" (Oaklands) and "The Ugly Duckling" (Gordon Head).

Friday evening at Lansdowne Junior High — "Three Pills in a Bottle" (Lansdowne), "Royal Suspect" (Esquimalt Senior High) and scenes from "The Barretts of Wimpole Street" (North Saanich High).

$1,000 in Fines For Tax Offence

Sidney business man Everett Goddard was fined $100 in court yesterday when he pleaded guilty to making false and deceptive excise tax reports.

He was also assessed $900, double the gain he is alleged to have made from the reports.

Clash of Personalities Coming in Two Versions

By BERT BINNY

"Separate Tables," the clash-of-personalities drama by English playwright Terence Rattigan, is coming to Victoria in two separate forms.

The Theatre Guild on Saturday opens a one-week run of the drama in Langham Court Theatre, while the Odeon Theatre plans to begin a run of the movie version about the end of April. The film, incidentally, is up for four Oscars—best movie, actor David Niven, actress Deborah Kerr and supporting actress Wendy Hiller.

Director of the Victoria version is John Poulton and the strong cast includes Sheila Litt, Elizabeth Mayne, Connie Thompson, Noel Cusack, Nora Kellie, Dorothy Dunbar, Veronica Thomas, Olive Keane, Carol MacCormac, Ken Bostock, Jeremy Brechen, Richard Litt and G. M. Hewlett.

Starting with the opening of "Separate Tables," the Guild directorate is going to crack down hard but, nevertheless, with perfect justification, in the matters of late comers and unclaimed reservations. Put very briefly, no one will be admitted to the theatre while any performance is in progress and telephone reservations will not be held after 8 p.m.

The House trio of pianist Bud Glover, bass player Bob Miller and drummer Gerry Adams will be on hand at the usual times, 10.30 p.m. Friday and Saturday at 1306 Wharf.

Two outstanding events are scheduled for March 15, 16 and 17, though they are in quite different fields of art.

On March 15 and 16, the Victoria Symphony Orchestra will be under the baton of distinguished conductor Sir Ernest MacMillan, whose program will be made up from the works of Mendelssohn, Debussy, Rimsky-Korsakoff, Vaughan Williams and Howard Cable.

Tuesday, March 17, is the date for the single Royal Theatre performance by Jose Greco and his Spanish Ballet. This has been a virtual sellout for some time past.

The Jewish Women's Musical Club of Winnipeg is offering three $75 prizes to any and all writers.

First is for an original one-act play, half-hour TV script or script for children's theatre, the second for an original musical composition for solo instrument or string quartet, and the third for an original one-act play written in Yiddish or Hebrew.

Entries must be submitted by April 1 to Mrs. J. Wilder, play contest chairman, 436 Ash Street, Winnipeg 9.

Chapman Loses Murder Appeal

VANCOUVER (CP) — Five British Columbia appeal court judges Friday unanimously dismissed an appeal by convicted murderer Robert Arthur Chapman, 19.

Defence counsel A. E. Branca had asked that a verdict of manslaughter be substituted for the murder verdict against Chapman, convicted of shooting his brother John, 23, at their Rosedale farm Oct. 17.

COASTAL FISH

Scad, a fish somewhat like mackerel, is found off the west coast of Vancouver Island and the Queen Charlotte Islands.

Dizziness Tires Jayne

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — No more the dizzy blonde for Jayne Mansfield. Does this sound familar? No doubt. It seems as though all our sirens want to go dramatic at some time or other.

"All the studio can see me in is comedies," Jayne complains. "In my earlier career, I did serious roles almost entirely. I studied drama at the University of Texas. One of the best pictures I did was a little movie called The Burglar, which was a drama."

Jayne would also like to play Las Vegas. "But the studio won't let me go."

"They say they have other plans for me. One of them is to go to Australia to publicize The Sheriff of Fractured Jaw."

Impaired Youth On Probation

A Sidney youth was put on five months' probation with a 9 p.m. curfew and fined $20 in Juvenile Court yesterday for creating a disturbance and being in control of a motorcycle while impaired.

He was taken home once by police after using "foul" language in the downtown area, but returned "pushing a motorcycle," police said.
